

We are going to read through and study the entire old testament in one school years time. We will plan on 180 days of instruction, Monday through Friday.

We will start in the beginning and read through the entire old testament this year. Every day we will also read one chapter of Psalms and then one chapter of Proverbs subsequently.

Here is a summary of the book of Psalms:

The book of Psalms is a collection of songs and poems that represent century's worth of praises and prayers to God on numerous different circumstances and themes. The book of Psalms is the longest book in the Bible. David is the author of 73 different psalms. His son, Solomon wrote two of them. Moses wrote another one. The additional authors were priests or Levites who were responsible for providing music for sanctuary worship during David's reign.

Here is a summary of the book of Proverbs:

The book was written to teach wisdom to God's people. Proverbs are short clever explanations which are easy to remember. King Solomon is the principal writer of Proverbs. The book is filled with wisdom for many different situations in life: personal conduct, sexual relations, business, wealth, charity, ambition, discipline, debt, child-rearing, character, alcohol, politics, revenge, and godliness. Knowledge is nothing more than the accumulation of facts, but wisdom is the ability to see people, events, and situations through the eyes of God. He reveals the mind of God in numerous situations of life.

Here is a summary of the first book of the bible: Genesis

Genesis is the first book of the Law and also the first book of the entire Bible. It was written by Moses. It was written to record God's creation of the world and to demonstrate his love for all that He created. It begins with early mankind and will go into the Period of Patriarchs beginning with Abraham.

Day 134 Lamentations

This book was written by Jeremiah. Its purpose was to express despair and teach God's people that disobedience to the Lord results in immense suffering and distress. Jeremiah pours out his emotions in compassion and empathy for God's nation, as he watches them in habit a foreign land.

Read all of it

1-2 In the first lament we catch the initial glimpse into how both the prophet-Jeremiah and the city-the people feel about Jerusalem's fall. We then learn from the second lament all that is described in the first one is ascribed to Jehovah himself. It was all the Lord's doing, just as had been predicted in Jeremiah's preaching and prophesying.

Will we ever get over learning our lessons too late? Now, the city recognizes that what she had done has been against the God of her covenant. Why couldn't she have seen this earlier to prevent the judgement upon her is still a mystery to this day. It can only be explained that the blindness of her sins kept her from repenting and avoiding what she now experiences.

3-4-5 Jeremiah speaks of his own sorrow over Jerusalem's fall before God in the 3rd lament. His own spirit is identified with the peoples. The 4th lament is over Jehovah's anger. How just and right it was for God to be wrathful over the sins of His people! This emphasizes the just and righteous nature of God and also serves to call us to a higher standard of living. How disappointed do you suppose God is when we sin when we both know that we can do better? The 5th closes with a prayer on Jerusalem's behalf. The hope in Jehovah's ability to be faithful to His people, and restore them to fellowship.
