The title of the book is Baseball Saved Us. How did baseball save those who were imprisoned in the internment camps during World War II?

_____

How do you think Shorty felt when he swung the bat and hit the ball "out of the park"? _____

Tell about a time when people thought you would not be able to do something and you proved them wrong. _____

_____

What did you do and how did you feel? _____

_____

Others teased Shorty for things about himself that he could not change, such as his height and his cultural background. Tell me about a time when others teased you for something that you could not change about yourself? _____

_____

_____

How did this make you feel? _____

How do you feel about the times that maybe you or someone you know has teased someone about something that the person could not change? _____

---

Before the baseball field was build at the internment camp, there was little to do. How do you think the people felt before the baseball field was built? _____
